VII Disclaimer

All host companies have the right to decide to reject interns. In the event that this occurs, we will arrange a comparable replacement company. You agree to hold us harmless. This also applies to the event that the host company elects to remove itself from the cooperation with us. If replacement companies are not available, you agree to accept refund of internship placement fee.

On the rare occasions in which circumstances force us to cancel your placement, you can choose to convert internship placement fee into Chinese course or we will refund the internship placement fee and we will incur no further liability.

We and the host company reserve the absolute right to terminate internship for disruptive behavior without any refund.

VIII Code of Conduct

Students should observe MandarinRocks' regulations and policy. Students will be removed without a refund if they engage in illegal, violent or improper behavior.
